The regulating principles established by Article third of the Constitution, as well as the educational transformation encouraged by the 2007-2012 National Development Plan (Plan Nacional de Desarrollo) and the objectives outlined in the 2007-2012 Education Sector Program (Prosedu: Programa Sectorial de Educación) have established the leading basis to provide direction and sense to the actions in public education policies in Mexico for the coming decades.

Within this framework, and based on the attributions granted by the General Law of Education (Ley General de Educación), the Secretariat of Public Education (Secretaría de Educación Pública) proposed as one of Prosedu’s fundamental objectives to be achieved by 2012 “to raise the quality of education so that students improve their level of educational achievement, have a means of accessing to a better well-being and thus, contribute to the national development”.\(^1\)

The main strategy for attaining such objective in Basic Education is “to carry out an Integral Reform in Basic Education, focused on the adoption of an educational model based on competencies that corresponds to the developmental needs of Mexico in the XXI century”,\(^2\) envisaging a greater articulation and efficiency among preschool, elementary and secondary school.

Prosedu has also established that “the criteria for quality improvement in education must be applied to teacher training, the updating of curricula and syllabus contents, pedagogical approaches, teaching methods, and didactic resources”.\(^3\) Simultaneously, Unesco\(^4\) has indicated that educational systems are to prepare students in order to face the new challenges of a globalized world, in which the contact among multiple languages and cultures becomes more and more common every day. In this context, the educational system is compelled to help students understand the diverse cultural expressions in Mexico and the world.

It is from this perspective that the Secretariat of Public Education acknowledges the necessity to incorporate English as a subject to the curricula of preschool and elementary education, as well as to make suitable adjustments to the English subject curricula in secondary school, with the purpose of articulating the teaching of this foreign language in the three levels of basic education. By means of this articulation, it is expected that by the time students complete their secondary education, they will have developed the necessary plurilingual and pluricultural competencies to successfully face the communicative challenges of a globalized world, build a broader vision of the linguistic and cultural diversity at a global level, and thus, respect their own culture as well as that of others.

In order to carry out the actions that enable the articulation of English teaching, the Secretariat of Public Education has implemented the National English Program in Basic Education (NEPBE, or PNIEB: Programa Nacional de Inglés en Educación Básica) from which syllabuses for the three levels of basic education are derived. Such syllabuses are devised based on the alignment and standardization of national and international standards, the selection of criteria for teacher training, the establishment of guidelines for the design and evaluation of educational materials, as well as the certification of English language proficiency.

One of the above actions is to organize national academic meetings to strengthen English teachers, in order to provide them with information and technical-pedagogical instructions, aiming at contributing to the necessary measures to be taken for the implementation and generalization of the corresponding four-cycle syllabuses in the National English Program in Basic Education.

Secretariat of Public Education
The National English Program for Basic Education (NEPBE) integrates 3rd grade of Preschool as well as the six grades of Elementary school in its in-class testing stage 2011-2012. This means that all students, regardless of the grade in which they incorporate to, will attend the English subject with the NEPBE.

This situation represents two different challenges for elementary school teachers. Firstly, they have to generate the proper conditions to operate the NEPBE Syllabuses with equity and quality in all schools in the country. Secondly, they have to make sure that students achieve the purposes of each of the cycles of the NEPBE and the achievement levels established in each grade, despite not having attended the English language subject in the grade(s) prior to the 2011-2012 school period.

For the above reasons this leveling guide for Cycle 2 was developed as part of the materials that accompany the implementation of the NEPBE in its in-class testing stage. It is intended to provide teachers with:

- A list of basic contents designed to be worked in a minimum of one-and-a-half or two-month period, so that it allows 3rd and 4th students to achieve the expected levels set in the NEPBE Syllabuses. It also seeks an earlier introduction to the contents of the syllabus of the students’ grade in order to guarantee that when finishing Cycle 2, students will have reached the purposes and levels of achievement.
- A set of teaching guidelines and considerations that teachers should take into account when beginning with the teaching of the NEPBE Syllabuses.
This guide includes five sections: Purpose of English Language Teaching for Cycle 2, Teaching Guidelines, Basic Leveling Contents of 3rd grade of Elementary school, Basic Leveling Contents of 4th grade of Elementary school, and Introduction to the NEPBE, and an Appendix.

The “Purpose of English Language Teaching for Cycle 2” that are hereto presented correspond to those set in the Cycle 2 of the NEPBE. Their incorporation has the objective of giving teachers basic foundations, which along with their experience and characteristics of their class, they can decide the order and depth in which contents must be taught. Thus, it is guaranteed that during the first month and a half (15 hours-class time) or second month (20 hours-class time) students will get the necessary knowledge to work with the contents of the grade they are in, and consequently reach the achievement levels for Cycle 2 at the end of the 4th grade of Elementary school.

The “Teaching Guidelines” are intended to support the teacher in the teaching of leveling contents through a set of methodological strategies that are characterized for being unrestricted. Therefore, teachers can use these or the methodology they consider most appropriate, based on the needs, characteristics, and interests of their students.

The “Basic Leveling Contents of 3rd grade of Elementary school” and “Basic Leveling Contents of 4th grade of Elementary school” were defined based on the Syllabuses of Cycle 2, the previous cycle, subsequent cycles, and the levels of achievement. As it is aforementioned, its purpose is to teach in a short period of time the contents of the NEPBE not studied in previous grades. Thus, unlike the contents of the NEPBE distributed in social practices of the language, the leveling contents are organized as follows:

- Contents of listening comprehension and oral production: listening/speaking.
- Content of reading comprehension and written production: read/write.
- Topics for reflection. These contents are classified into two groups: a) Specific, which correspond to concepts, features, characteristics, and elements of oral and written language of each specific competence; and b) General, which include... concepts and characteristics of oral and written texts, common to all Cycle 2 leveling contents.

The leveling contents lack the dynamic aspects of the social practices of the language, since they do not belong to any particular learning environment. Therefore, examples and teaching hours to approach the contents of this guide are presented as suggestions; nevertheless, teachers must adapt, change, simplify or expand them according to their planning, characteristics of their students, different variables and conditions that influence the organization of work in class. As a result, this guide offers a space for teachers to write their own methodological considerations and estimated teaching hours to work with the leveling contents.

Finally, the contents regarding the work done with the Program of Cycle 2 are presented in the “Introduction to the NEPBE”; also, a printable planning format is included in the “Appendix” to show a way to plan and organize the class work and contents of this guide.
The purpose of English Language Teaching for Cycle 2 in Basic Education (3rd and 4th grades Elementary school) is for students to acquire the necessary knowledge to understand and use English in order to recognize, understand, and use common expressions through the development of specific competencies particular to social practices of the language related to the production and interpretation of oral and written texts, pertaining to the Familiar and community, Literary and ludic, and Academic and educational environments. At the end of this cycle, the students are expected to:

- Express simple opinions and requests in familiar contexts.
- Recognize basic instructions, information and advertisements. Identify basic aspects of pronunciation and vocabulary used in everyday life contexts.
- Use expressions to refer to personal aspects and needs.
- Respond to spoken and written language in different linguistic and non-linguistic ways.
- Use different strategies to solve everyday problems as well as to look for information about concrete topics.
- Identify similarities and differences of cultural expressions between their own and the English language.
- Establish basic social contact by means of their linguistic repertoire.
Teaching Guidelines

To use this guide, the following guidelines are suggested:

- Know the group of students, in order to determine their interests, previous language knowledge, particularly English, as well as other characteristics that may affect their performance during the leveling sessions.

- Check and comprehend the Program of Cycle 2 in order to keep the sequence of this guide. The Syllabuses are the referent for solving doubts about the contents and teaching suggestions included in this guide. It is also convenient to examine the achievements in order to identify what is expected from these leveling sessions, as well as the “doing with the language” and “knowing about the language” that students need to review or study in depth considering the grades where English was not taught.

- Based on the previous information, select the order in which the contents will be taught as well as the teaching hours suggested for each one; bear in mind both, the total of hours suggested for leveling and the needs of the group.

- Review and analyze the examples provided in this guide for the teaching of contents. Take into account that these only represent one of the many ways in which they can or should be approached. Therefore, teachers should be aware that they are not designed to rule the organization and planning of class work, so it may be necessary to make any adjustments depending on the needs of students. It is important to mention that in the case of literary texts (songs, stories, legends, etc.), it was only possible to present sample texts; however, it is expected that students participate in the reading of complete texts. Since it is the first time students are in contact with the English language at school, texts should be presented mainly orally, and later on, through written texts.

- Choose from the list of permanent and specific topics for reflection in this guide, only those which are relevant to the contents. It is important to highlight that the topics for reflection in the leveling sessions should not be the focus of attention, since they do not promote the acquisition of the necessary skills to achieve the objectives of Cycle 2. This guide does not include lists of vocabulary nor strategies to teach since it is impossible to consider all texts in which vocabulary can be taught.

- Consider the convenience of adopting the suggestions given to address the contents.

- Assess the progress and achievements of students, as well as changes or adjustments to the components of the teaching practice. Even though assessment involves students’ promotion, its main function is formative.

Suggested examples

The Frog Prince (extract)

One fine evening, a young and happy princess put on her hat and dress, and went out to take a walk in a wood. She came to a cool spring of water to rest a while. She had a golden ball, which was her favorite toy; and she was always playing with it.

After a while she threw her golden ball so high that she missed catching it. The ball went far, until it fell into the spring. The princess looked into the spring after her ball, but it was very deep. She began to cry, and said, “I am so sad and desperate! If I get my ball again, I will give all my dresses and jewels, and everything that I have in the world”.

The Magic Kettle (fragmento)

High up among the mountains, an old happy man lived in his little house. He was very proud of it. He felt comfortable when listening to the birds singing outside his house.

One day, he was looking at the mountain, when he heard a noise in the room behind him. Frightened, he turned round, and in the corner he saw an old iron kettle. The old man was surprised and did not know how the kettle got there, but he took it up and looked at it carefully, and when he found that it was quite whole, he cleaned the dust off it and carried it into his kitchen.

- Where did the old happy man live?

The Solar System (extract)

The Solar System consists of the Sun and those celestial objects bound to it by gravity. There are eight relatively solitary planets whose orbits are almost circular. The four smaller inner planets, Mercury—the smallest planet of the Solar System—, Venus, Earth—our planet—, and Mars, are primarily composed of rock and metal. The four outer planets, Jupiter—the biggest planet of the solar system—, Saturn—the only planet that has rings—, Uranus and Neptune, also called the gas giants, are far more massive than the inner planets.

Teacher's suggestions

Minimum time suggested: 4 hours

Time suggested by the teacher: ___ hours
Listening/speaking

- Give and receive information about one’s hometown natural sites and buildings.

Reading/writing

- Participate in the writing of dialogues in which information about one’s hometown natural sites and buildings is exchanged.

Specific topics for reflection

Features and types of oral and written texts
- Structure of dialogues: opening, body, ending.

Phonic, syntactic and semantic elements of the texts
- Verb tenses: present and future.
- Type of sentences: (statements, questions, etc.).
- Grammar: prepositions (in, about, on, etc.), personal pronouns (I, you, me, her, us, etc.), question words (who, what, where, etc.), modal verbs (do, would, could, etc.).

Suggested examples

- Good morning, I think I’m lost. Do you know where the Museum of Modern Art is?
- Yes.
- Is it far from here?
- Not that much. Walk until you find the convenience store, when you get there, walk three blocks to the right, there is a bakery at the corner, will see the bus stop in front of it. Any bus driving by will take you to the Museum of Modern Art.
- Thank you very much!
- You’re welcome. You will get there in 15 minutes or so.

In addition to the specific topics for reflection suggested, the ones listed below are expected to be included in the contents since they help contextualize and give meaning to the specific competencies.

For example, Graphic and textual components are a necessary knowledge that helps to follow the reading of a children's story or record basic information about a science-related topic in a chart.

The social practices of the language are the same for the two grades in Cycle 2; however, there are variations in the presentation of contents of the “Specific competencies”. Thus, teachers may start teaching the social practice of the language in Unit 1, either the Familiar and community environment “Talk and write to participate in everyday dialogues” or the Literary and ludic environment “Read and sing songs”; or else, they can start teaching the social practice of the language in Unit 2, Academic and educational environment “Give and receive instructions to elaborate objects and record information” or Familiar and community environment “Offer and receive information about one’s self and acquaintances”.

The “Doing with the language” and “Knowing about the language” of these practices are included in this guide for the two school grades, but the level of depth and complexity is what differentiates one from the other. Consequently, regardless of the practice of the language chosen to start teaching, students will be working with all contents of the unit; therefore, working with the NEPBE will be a familiar practice. However, when teaching the contents of the NEPBE, it is necessary to consider the following:

- Pay attention to the development of receptive communicative skills in the social practices.
- Take into account that topics for reflection are cyclical throughout the specific competencies; therefore, there are several opportunities to work with them in context.
- Emphasize the development of being through the language contents that haven’t been taught (interculturality, attitudes, values, collaborative work, etc.).
